He has got 25 years of teaching and research experience. He has guided 4 Ph.D scholars, eight more are pursuing. Hence, the contribution to teaching and research is significant. Achieved best paper award in two national conferences which highlights the performance.

8. a) Significant contribution to Engineering and Technology

Significant contribution is in shaping the personality of B.Tech / M.Tech students. The service rendered can be split into three domains.

First Domain: Motivation and Training

Arranged guest lectures and inspirational talks by skill developers and aptitude trainers. Conducted mock tests and on-line tests for students as a part of training. A new initiative made in this regard is “Personality Development in the light of Bhagavadgita”, a course of eight sessions, conducted in association with Iskcon, Tirupati. This was well received and highly appreciated by companies who came for conducting placements.

Conducted National level Technical paper contests for six years to broaden the knowledge of students in technical horizon.

Second Domain: Conducting Placements

Several premier companies likely L&T, TCS, Wipro, Reliance Power, Indo-US-MIM and several others were invited to the campus to place the students. Nearly 600 students are placed in different companies in the past three years with the success rate of 90%-95%.

Third Domain: Recruitment Tests

Acted as Coordinator and conducted recruitment tests on behalf of Andhra Pradesh Power utilities like GENCO/TRANSCO and successfully recruited more than 1500 Engineers at Assistant Engineers level.

Involved actively in shaping the personality of students and thus responsible for enhancing their employability opportunities. Successful in placing the students in reputed companies. Recruitment tests conducted on behalf of GENCO/TRANSCO brought name & fame to the College / University.
